Accepting Submissions for NEW ARRS R3 Journal

ARRS is accepting manuscript submissions for R3. Consider contributing to the journal by submitting your own original articles. Author guidelines are available at: <https://www.r3journal.org/>. Submitted articles should be educational in nature, clinically relevant, and immediately applicable to a typical radiology practice. Submissions will be assessed by the Editorial Board and suitable articles will go through peer review prior to a final decision. Learn more about this new journal at: <https://www.r3journal.org/>

JRS Members are Invited to Join ARRS

Through this global partnership ARRS is pleased to offer complimentary membership for radiology residents in a training program, radiologists in fellowship training, and medical students interested in a career in radiology. ARRS also offers a significant discount for ARRS membership to JRS members in active practice in Japan.

To become an ARRS member go to <https://www.arrs.org/ARRSLIVE/join> and create an account. Be sure to complete the entire membership form in order to receive the complimentary or reduced membership fee. Questions should be directed to membership@arrs.org.
