

[AOCR 2024] Group Registration Discount Offer

Information from AOSR (As of 2023.12.22)

On behalf of the Asian Oceanian Congress of Radiology (AOCR) 2024, we extend an earnest invitation to actively participate in this event.

AOCR 2024 is poised to be a pivotal gathering of radiology professionals from across the Asian region, and we are eager to enhance the congress with the participation of your esteemed society. We are delighted to share an incentive to encourage registrations for the upcoming event :

Register with a Group of 20 or More and Enjoy a 20% Discount on the Registration Fee!

To streamline the group registration process, we kindly request each attendee to register individually for the congress. Upon completing their registration, please gather their information and fill out the attached form and submit to the CTSR (TRS) secretariat via email at office@rsroc.org.tw.

Important Note: A separate discount will be provided based on their provided userID. Once this setting is finalized, we will promptly send an acknowledgment.

Kindly advise your attendees to refrain from finalizing the payment process until they receive our acknowledgment.
